

Refund Policy

Payments made via the website are final and are not reversible. Please use caution when entering online payments. Payments returned for insufficient funds are subject to an insufficient funds fee.

Privacy & Security

Your payments made online are secure. You can make payments online at our website with confidence. We have partnered with Merchant e-Solutions to offer a safe and secure credit card transactions for our patients. Merchant e-Solutions manages the complex routing of sensitive information through the credit card processing networks. The company adherest to industry standards for payments processing.

